

letter, of the f<sup>35</sup> archetype for 2 and 3 John and Jude. It is reproduced in my Greek Text.

Given my presuppositions, I consider that I have good reason for declaring the divine preservation of the precise original wording of the complete New Testament Text, to this day. That wording is reproduced in my edition of the Greek NT, The Greek New Testament According to Family 35, available from Amazon.com, as well as from my site, www.prunch.org. BUT PLEASE NOTE: whether or not the archetype of f<sup>35</sup> is the Autograph (as I claim), the fact remains that the MSS collated for this study reflect an incredibly careful transmission of their source, and this throughout the middle ages. My presuppositions include: God exists; He inspired the Biblical Text; He promised to preserve it for a thousand generations (1 Chronicles 16:15); so He must have an active, ongoing interest in that preservation [there have been fewer than 300 generations since Adam, so He has a ways to go!]. If He was preserving the original wording in some line of transmission other than f<sup>35</sup>, would that transmission be any less careful than what I have demonstrated for f<sup>35</sup>? I think not. So any line of transmission characterized by internal confusion is disqualified—this includes all the other lines of transmission that I have seen so far!<sup>1</sup>

The Best Complete NT I Have Seen, so Far!

GA 2554 is one of a number of complete NT manuscripts representing Family 35 that are available to the academic community. It is dated at 1434 AD and is held by the Romanian Academy in Bucharest. I wish to register my sincere thanks to the Institute for New Testament Textual Research in Münster for making available a digital copy of their microfilm of this manuscript. Although from the fifteenth century, the hand is very neat. Of the eighteen complete NT manuscripts representing Family 35 of which I hold a copy (there are others), 2554 is easily the best—I have collated it from cover to cover. I will now list all the places where it deviates from the family archetype, including some doubtful cases, for the whole NT.<sup>2</sup> There are only 49,<sup>3</sup> not all of which are proper variants.

<sup>2</sup> For the Family 35 profile please see Appendix B in my Identity IV, freely available from my site, www.prunch.org, but it is also included as the second section in this Part II. The complete archetype is printed in my The Greek New Testament according to Family 35.

<sup>3</sup> To have no more than 49 for the whole NT is simply astonishing.
