

Comment: I consider that the first hand has only one proper variant in 2 Timothy, and it does not affect the meaning. Titus and Philemon give us a perfect copy of the archetype.

37. Heb. 3:13 καλειται || καληται 2554^c [an itacism produced by a later hand, resulting in nonsense]

38. Heb. 9:1 πρωτη || 1 σκηνη [30%] [Family 35 is divided here, but with corrections a majority, including 2554, have the first reading; in any case, within the context the meaning is not affected]

Comment: I consider that the first hand gives us a perfect copy of the archetype for Hebrews. James and 1 and 2 Peter also give us a perfect copy of the archetype. A manuscript with only one proper variant for the whole Pauline corpus is surely a paragon of virtue. I call that extraordinarily careful transmission, since it would also be true of the preceding generations, of necessity.

39. 1 Jn. 1:6 περιπατουμεν || περιπατωμεν [71%] [Family 35 is divided here; I follow a minority, made up of the better MSS, including 2554. The verb ‘say’ is properly Subjunctive, being controlled by εαν, but the verbs ‘have’ and ‘walk’ are part of a statement and are properly Indicative—only if we are in fact walking in darkness do we become liars for claiming to be in fellowship. So περιπατουμεν is correct. In any case, within the context the meaning is not affected.]

40. 1 Jn. 3:23 πιστευσωμεν || πιστενωμεν (26.5%) 2554^c [traces of the sigma are visible; in any case, within the context the change in tense does not affect the meaning]

Comment: I consider that the first hand gives us a perfect copy of the archetype for 1 John. 2 and 3 John and Jude also give us a perfect copy of the archetype. A manuscript with not a single variant for all seven General Epistles is surely a paragon of virtue. I call that extraordinarily careful transmission, since it would also be true of the preceding generations, of necessity. Up to here there have only been thirteen proper variants, but let us see what happens in Revelation.

41. Rev. 1:17 επεσα || επεσον 2554 [these appear to be alternate forms of the same word, so this is not a proper variant]¹

42. Rev. 4:8 λεγοντα || λεγοντες 2554^{alt} [Is the subject of the verb just the living creatures, or are the elders included? On the basis of verses 9-11, it would be just the living creatures. In any case, a translation
